PC:

In view of the fact that the accused persons were on bail during the trial and there is no complaint that during that period the bail granted was in any manner misused, we see no reason why the present applicant should not be released on bail during the pendency of appeal also. Hence applicant-appellant be released on bail in the sum of Rs.5000/- with two sureities in the like amount. Applicant-accused shall attend the concerned police station once in three months.
